

Build awareness to your website

Have you thought of any of these...

- What's the latest trend and technology on the market now?
- Looking for quality one stop website solution with affordable price?
- The cost of site maintenance services is unaffordable?

Our website revamp package [INd Design + COLON Content + MOS5 Hosting] is your solution.

INd design challenges themselves to create designs that have impact in the real world, not just designs that look pretty at presentations; we also offer a great channel to deliver a strong marketing message to your customers. INd design's multimedia team offers the latest interactive technology to establish your marketing concept.

COLON Content automates content creation, management and publishing processes on websites, intranet and extranet systems. With user-friendly interface, security access, routing and approval processes, it minimize error and streamline maintenance & administrative process. Eventually it saves cost to your website.

MOS5 Hosting provides high quality secure hosting services together with value-added online solutions, data sharing, storage & backup products.
